

DEAD SEA SCROLLS - THE TEMPLE SCROLL COLUMNS 16 AND 17

How to find the consonants missing from the eroded top?

The dashed-line square is where more than 20 Hebrew consonants now appear, thanks to Xerox and RIT scientists. Those formerly missing consonants were transferred from Column 16, where the area is marked by a bold solid square.

The Temple Scroll

No. 1

Cols. 16 and 17

The dotted square bracket is where over 20 Hebrew consonants now appear, thanks to the Xerox and RIT scientists. They are transferred from Col. 16 where the area is marked by a bold square.